Bodies In Pacific Indicate 58 Killed In Airliner Plunge

HONOLULU (AP)—Rescuers today pulled burned and mutilated bodies from shark-infested waters 350 miles east of Wake Island where a Transocean Airlines passenger plane crashed Saturday night with 58 aboard.

Fifty passengers—nine of them children—and eight crewmen presumably perished in the crash. The Navy transport Barrett recovered 14 bodies including nine women and two children. The vessel asked permission to return to

Guam because the "bodies are becoming decomposed and becoming difficult to recover or identify."

The Barrett radioed that all of the bodies showed "evidence of violent sudden death with multiple bruises." The report said a previous message that one victim showed evidence of flash burns proved erroneous.

The airliner, bound from Guam to Oakland, Calif., was last heard from at Saturday night. It apparently plunged into the sea minutes later without a chance to send out a distress signal.

Condition of the bodies indicated the plane plunged in flames or exploded soon after crashing into the sea.

McCarthy Seeks Peek At Secrets

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) sought today a plan to launch a controversial investigation of the supersecret Central Intelligence Agency without tipping off its secrets.

McCarthy had a date today to discuss his CIA probe plans with its director, Allen Dulles.

Sen. Monroney (D-Okla.) told the Senate Monday such a probe "would disclose to our enemies information that even the best spy apparatus of the Kremlin" could not get. He asked the Senate to "be willing to take full responsibility" if such an inquiry is carried on by McCarthy's investigations subcommittee.

McCarthy said Dulles, a brother of President Eisenhower's secretary of state, "is rightfully concerned about not exposing the working of his organization and exposing the identity of its secret agents."

He said he believes investigations may be conducted without such disclosures.

McCarthy said his immediate objective is permission to question William P. Bundy, a son-in-law of former Secretary of State Dean Acheson. McCarthy said Bundy is in line for assignment as a liaison man between the National Security Council and the Atomic Energy Commission.

McCarthy told the Senate in a speech July 9 that Bundy had contributed $400 to the defense fund of Alger Hiss, former State Department employee now serving a prison sentence on charges of lying under oath in denying that he passed official secrets to a Communist spy courier.

Propaganda Balloons Urge Czech Revolt

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—Thousands of balloons drifted over the Iron Curtain Monday night carrying messages that urged Czechs to oppose their Communist overlords.

The American-sponsored crusade for freedom's project "Winds of Freedom" calls for 12 million messages to be ballooned into Czechoslovakia — one for every person in the country.

The two types of balloons used either explode at high altitudes scattering messages, or sink slowly toward a target.

Fly In Soup; Diner Gets 10 Cents Off

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—The diner patron was half finished with his soup when he noticed a fly.

Graciously, his waitress removed the baw.

When the check arrived, the 20-cent soup was marked "10 cents." The puzzled customer asked why.

"You only ate half of it," replied the waitress.

Whereupon, Dr. Clarence G. Salsbury, Arizona's state director of public health, paid his bill and left.

Vice President Unscarred In Cabinet Scraps

By DON WHITEHEAD
For James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the curious and unpredictable fortunes of political life, Vice President Richard M. Nixon is one member of the "Eisenhower team" who has emerged unscarred by controversy from the first six months of Republican administration.

Storms have whirled around virtually every cabinet member at one time or another since inauguration. Nixon has steered a course remarkably free of criticism either by Democrats or Republicans.

Conduct Impeccable

And yet just a short time before inauguration, Nixon was the most controversial figure in the new Republican lineup. The tempest over his acceptance of a private expense fund donated by wealthy Californians made him for a brief period appear as the Peck's bad boy of the campaign.

At one time, a dispute raged within the Republican high command over whether Nixon should be dropped from the ticket.

Nixon's own television defense made political history. Eisenhower stood by Nixon. The crisis passed.

Since inauguration, Nixon's conduct has been politically impeccable. Outside of his infrequent speeches, he has done little to gain public attention other than pat a lion on the head for the benefit of photographers. He has kept himself out of the headlines and become a behind-the-scenes worker.

Hungry East Berlin Residents Rush Into West Zone For Food

By DON DOANE

BERLIN (AP)—Hundreds of hungry East Berliners gave the lie to Communist claims of ample food today, storming across the sector border to take advantage of a West Berlin food relief program.

Only three days after their Red government scornfully rejected a U. S. offer of 15 million dollars worth of food, the Easterners made a mass rush to buy privately donated stocks sold along one part of the border at a special reduced rate of exchange.

Gone In Three Hours

The relief market opened in the borough of Kreuzberg, with West Berlin city funds supplementing private donations of milk and fruit. Within three hours the stocks were gone, though buying was restricted to persons from the immediately adjoining East Berlin neighborhood.

The food was sold at just over one-sixth the normal price.

Laborite Curious About Squelched Royal Love Affair

LONDON (AP)—A Labor party member served notice today he'll try again to get the House of Commons talking about Princess Margaret's reported romance with a divorced air hero. The House speaker politely but firmly shut him up Monday.

Laborite Emrys Hughes said he would file another question in the House Wednesday addressed to the air minister. Officially he wants to know why the ministry is assigning a new air attaché to Britain's embassy in Brussels.

The new attaché is Group Capt. Peter Townsend, 38, a divorced man and until his transfer an equerry in the royal household for nine years. Reportedly he and the princess are in love, and some British newspapers have speculated he's being sent out of the country because the Church of England opposes a divorced person remarriage, particularly with royalty.

Hughes said Monday he thought the government was supposed to economize on such attaches and tried to pose what he called "supplementary questions." The speaker of the House ruled him out of order.

Ladies In Sheets

BOSTON (AP)—Ladies' day at a Turkish bath in the West End turned out to be an embarrassing day for five ladies.

The five were forced to the street Monday by a fire which spread in to the baths. The ladies had only enough time to grab sheets.

Riot In Oregon Prison Quelled

SALEM, Ore. (AP)—The Oregon Prison—torn four days by strike, riot and rebellion—was again quiet today.

The last of the 1,000 rebelling convicts, cowed by discomfort, meagre food and little water, were returned to their cells Monday night.

They were taken in groups of 20 from the prison recreation yard, where they have been held since Saturday, and locked up. Warden Clarence T. Gladden said they were docile and respectful now.

Work was to begin soon to repair the $100,000 damage wrought by Saturday's brief but intensive rioting.

The disturbance began Friday morning with an orderly no-work strike. The first flareup occurred Friday night when Gladden rejected the demands saying that standards of food, clothing and medicine already were high.

Saturday morning the convicts set the prison tailor shop and several other buildings ablaze.

Yugoslavs Charged With Border Killing

LONDON (AP)—Albania charged today that Yugoslav troops killed an Albanian frontier post commandant in a gun battle Monday. Tirana Radio said a protest note has been handed to the Yugoslav government.

The note charged Yugoslav troops opened fire with rifles and hand grenades in trying to cover "a group of Yugoslav diversionsists who had penetrated deep into Albanian territory."

Jackson Prison Fugitive On FBI Top Ten Roster

WASHINGTON (AP)—Alex Richard Bryant, convicted rapist and robber, today was added to the FBI's list of "10 most wanted fugitives."

The FBI said Bryant, now 46, had spent all but seven months of his adult life behind prison walls until he made a spectacular escape from Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson in January, 1952.

Held Knife On Guard

Serving a life sentence at the time, he was being taken to the penitentiary's administration building in a station wagon, accompanied by a guard and driver, when he whipped out a knife, held it against the guard's neck and ordered the driver to proceed out of the prison grounds.

Threatening to slit the guard's throat if his directions were not obeyed, Bryant had himself driven to a remote spot near Liberty Hills, Mich., where he looted his hostages of money, personal effects and a driver's license, turned them out of the vehicle and sped away.

The station wagon was later found wrecked and abandoned at Edon, Ohio.

On Crime Spree

Bryant was 18 years old when he was convicted of rape and given a long term in the Michigan Reformatory at Ionia.

Paroled in 1928, the FBI said, he joined two accomplices in a crime spree of 11 armed robberies in Grand Rapids, Mich. during May and July, 1929. It was for this that he received the life sentence.

The fugitive is of medium height and weight, has blue eyes and a ruddy complexion. His auburn hair is balding on top. His right index

Another Soviet Key Man Purged

MOSCOW (AP)—Vyacheslav A. Malyshev, one of the Soviet Union's top engineers and planners, has been relieved of his post as minister of transport and heavy industry in another major government change.

The announcement that Malyshev has been replaced by Ivan Isidorovich Nosenko was made in the newspaper Evening Moscow.

Malyshev, a former deputy premier, was considered by Western authorities to be one of the most important men in the Soviet Union because he has held key posts in the development of the Soviet industrial war potential. What happened to him was not revealed in the dispatch.

Last April the Kremlin sent Malyshev to Czechoslovakia to put the finger on mismanagement of that satellite's lagging foundry and steel industry but he was believed to have returned to the Soviet Union.

Malyshev became a vice chairman of the Council of Ministers (the Soviet cabinet) in 1947 and in October, 1952, was elected a full member of the Communist party's Presidium.

Brawl Costs Arm

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Howard Bigham Davis, 29, a Fort Worth ex-convict, had his right arm amputated Monday night after it was shattered by a shotgun blast in a tavern quarrel.

Six months ago, Davis lost his left arm in a similar brawl.

RISE IN RUSSIA—U. S. diplomatic circles are interested in reports that Marshal Georgi Zhukov (above) may rise to new power in the Kremlin reshuffle following the ouster of Soviet Secret Police Chief Lavrenti Beria. General named Eisenhower. (NEA Telephoto)

Freighter Sinks; Crew All Saved

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The freighter Jacob Luckenbach plunged to the bottom of the Pacific Ocean minutes after an early morning collision today, but all crewmen were rescued, the Coast Guard said.

The outbound Luckenbach, reportedly headed for the Far East from the Oakland Army Depot, collided with the Hawaiian Pilot, inbound from Hawaii, in dense fog about 18 miles southwest of the Golden Gate.

Details of the collision were scanty.

First word of the collision came about 5:20 a. m. 6:20 a. m., CST from Globe Wireless, which picked up a terse distress signal from the Luckenbach, saying:

"Believe ship sinking."

The Coast Guard also had picked up distress calls, but did not know which ships were involved or how seriously they were damaged.

Before Coast Guard boats could reach the scene, the Hawaiian Pilot messaged that its lifeboats were picking up crewmen from the Luckenbach.

Then came word from the pilot aboard the Hawaiian Pilot that the Luckenbach had gone down. The message said all crewmen had been rescued and none was seriously injured.

Communist Suspicion Snarls Truce Talks

PANMUNJOM (AP)—Allied and Communist armistice delegates met for 39 minutes today and then called it quits until Wednesday, their negotiations apparently snarled by Red fears that South Korea will honor a truce only for a limited time.

Official secrecy shrouded developments inside the conference hut, but the Communist Peiping radio said the U. S.-South Korean accord "has placed another time bomb in the way to an armistice in Korea."

After today's session, the U. N. Command reported that Communist liaison officers lodged a charge that an Allied shell landed in the Panmunjom neutral zone Sunday. The Reds charged Monday that Allied planes bombed a war prisoner assembly area north of Pyongyang July 10.

The U. N. command has not yet replied to Monday's protest. Although there was no announcement concerning the full-dress truce talks, Communist correspondents outside the hut said the negotiations were "getting nowhere." Their comments usually reflect the official Communist line inside the conference.

Alan Winnington of the London Daily Worker indicated the Reds were asking a series of questions aimed at getting more clarification on assurances South Korea will abide by an armistice.

It seemed clear that the Communists thus far were far from satisfied with President Syngman Rhee's statements on his two-week-long secret talks with special U. S. envoy Walter S. Robertson in Seoul.

Envoy Brings Back Report On Secret Talks With Rhee

The assistant secretary of state is flying by way of Alaska. He reportedly took with him a signed pledge by Rhee agreeing to abide by an armistice in Korea if one can be arranged at Panmunjom.

Robertson was affable, but just before boarding his plane, he read this statement to newsmen:

"I have noted in the press many misrepresentations of the friendly and frank exchange of views in conversations including President Rhee."

"However unintentionally such misrepresentations may have been made, they were none the less real."

"Nothing agreed upon is inconsistent with an immediate implementation of the truce and the long-announced objectives of the United Nations, the United States and the Republic of Korea for an independent, unified Korea and a just and lasting peace in the Far East."

"I do not wish to make further comment before reporting in person to President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles."

Jet Ace Flies 200 Missions In Korea; Ready For More

SEOUL (AP)—Maj. James Jabara, the world's first jet ace, is going home after flying nearly 200 combat missions and shooting down 14 MIGs. But he is willing to come back to Korea for a third MIG-killing tour.

Jabara told newsmen here today he thinks MIG pilots aren't as good as they used to be.

"MIG pilots are not as aggressive or experienced or as well trained as they were on my first tour," he said. "We x x x have proved over here we can outshoot and outfight the MIGs. This has been proved in the air war."

The 5th Air Force said Jabara is slated for U. S. duty as a fighter pilot at Hancock Air Force Base, Syracuse, N. Y.

Jabara's friends said he was ready to fly his final five missions in hopes of beating or tying the all-time MIG record of 16 kills set by Capt. Joseph McConnell of Apple Valley, Calif., or at least of making "triple ace" rating with 15 kills.

Fanatic Chinese Gain 4 Miles In North Korea

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

SEOUL (AP)—Tens of thousands of Chinese ripped through South Korean lines as far as four miles in central Korea today in a mounting onslaught that imperiled Allied defenses.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, 8th Army commander, said after a first-hand look at the grave situation that ROK defenders were yielding some ground "as the defense readjusts itself to the new situation."

Troops Swarm In

Between 60,000 and 70,000 Chinese aimed their sudden assault—the mightiest Red offensive in more than two years—at main-line positions on a 20-mile front east of Kumhwa to the Pukhan River.

Troops from eight Chinese divisions were thrown into the blazing battles in the wake of some of the heaviest Red artillery barrages of the war.

The full weight of the Red assault fell on South Korean forces, but relatively small U. S. units supporting the ROKs were swept into the attack.

Four Red divisions—about 40,000 men—struck first in rainy darkness just before midnight. Units from the four reserve divisions were fed into the battle as needed, U. S. officers said.

Flank In Danger

The 8th Army said earlier that the Chinese had driven at least two miles southward toward the Kumsong-Kumhwa road network below Kumsong.

The Chinese made their deepest penetrations at the west and east

Big 3 Postpones Talk With Reds

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Big three Western foreign ministers wind up their Washington conferences today with indications of agreement that any high-level meeting with Russia should be delayed at least until next fall.

A high British official said his government was willing to wait until after the German elections Sept. 6 to avoid possible embarrassment to West Germany's government.

Diplomatic informants reported that Acting British Foreign Secretary Lord Salisbury had presented this position to Secretary of State Dulles and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault and that the three were in substantial accord.

A determined effort to bring about German unification would involve at some stage a Big Four conference.

While unification is a problem for the four occupation powers, it is an urgent political issue in Germany. Out of this fact is derived the reported opinion that it would be better to avoid action on the problem at the four-power level until after Germany's September elections.

Plan To Spray Forest Area

National forest plantation land northeast of Rapid River will be sprayed by plane in about 10 days in an attack on the Saratoga spittlebug, a pest which destroys young pine trees, C. L. Harrison, head of the U. S. Forest Service in Escanaba, has reported.

The need to spray the 1,200 acres is a development of the last few days. The land was inspected two weeks ago and at that time "it didn't look like we had any job on our hands," Harrison said.

However, another inspection last Thursday and Friday revealed the spittlebug problem had reached serious proportions, and Harrison contacted the forest service region office in Milwaukee, which will issue a request for bids on the spraying job.

Harrison said equipment for such spraying was not available locally.

The Saratoga spittlebug is light tan with lighter cross markings, and is about 1/2 inch long. It mainly attacks red pine, said Harrison, though it also goes after jackpine.

"Their damage is the piercing of the bark and sucking out the juice and sapping the tree," Harrison explained. "They're a nasty thing. They cast out a sort of foam all around," he said, and this foam protects them.

Harrison said the national forest land near Rapid River is the only place in this area where the spittlebug onslaught is serious enough to call for airplane spraying. However, he declared, the pest is probably attacking home-owners' trees.

"People are calling in now to ask what's the matter with their trees and I'm sure that's what it is," he said.

Parking Fines Can Be Paid At Police Station

Motorists who get tickets for expired parking meters, overtime parking, or for being over the yellow line in parking stalls can pay their fines at the police station during the first 24 hours after issuance of the tickets, G. S. Leonard, Escanaba Safety Director, noted today.

If persons with tickets report in the first 24 hours, the fine is 50 cents. After 24 hours, violators in these three groups go into justice court, and pay a higher fine, Leonard said.

Provision for the 24-hour low-fine period and payment in the police station was made when the Escanaba parking meter ordinance recently was passed.

Current traffic tickets state this period is 48 hours, but these were printed a year ago, Leonard states. Fines for these violations are accepted only in the first 24 hours after the ticket is issued, he emphasized.

Rotten Eggs Ruin Scenic Jackson Road

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—A small road north of Jackson is an unpopular spot these hot days.

During the weekend, someone dumped about 700 dozen rotten eggs in piles along the road.

Deputy Sheriff Blair Corley theorized the eggs were hijacked and spoiled before the thieves could find a market for them.

COINS WERE Jangling in city hall Monday when the weekly parking meter collection was tallied. A total of 32,998 pennies, 5,207 nickels and 366 dimes was counted out, giving the city $626.93 for the week beginning July 6. Since the meters were put in operation here June 29, motorists have deposited $1,565.10 in them. In the picture above City Controller Alfred H. Lawrence scoops the money into a sorting machine. Later the coins are put through a machine which rolls and counts them. The Monday collection filled a 10-gallon can, and was so heavy one man barely could lift it from the floor. (Daily Press Photo)

Stealing Crackers Brings Jail Term For Escanaba Boy

Arthur DeRouin, 17, of 301 N. 16th St., Monday was sentenced to 30 days in jail when he pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny before Justice Caroline Nystrom.

DeRouin was arrested Monday by Escanaba Police, who state he broke a seal on a railroad car parked near the National Biscuit Company warehouse. He took a box of crackers valued at 50 cents, police report.

Breaking a railroad car seal constitutes a felony, but in this case, because of the age of the youth, the offense was treated as a misdemeanor, police state. There was no alternative to the jail sentence.

A 15-year-old youth has admitted being with DeRouin when the car seal was broken.

Hearings Held On Comp Cases

The Michigan Workmen's Compensation Commission held hearings today in Delta County Court-house on cases from the entire Upper Peninsula. Two cases were heard this morning, including one, heard by a deputy commissioner, in which the City of Gladstone was defendant.

Scheduled for this afternoon were 10 more hearings, some of which involved parties from Hermansville, Chatham, and Gwinn. Three of the four members of the commission were present. They were Theodore Ryan, chairman; Delbert Storie, and Wade McCree.

No decisions were issued. The commission listens to the evidence and makes its decision at a later date, Ryan said.

The case heard this morning was Mabel Smith, Crystal Falls, vs. Superior Auto Service, Crystal Falls, and the State Accident Fund. It was a review case, Ryan said, where the commission listened to oral arguments on the case, which is being appealed from the decision of a deputy commissioner.

An original case was heard this morning by the Commission's deputy commissioner in this area, Silas McGregor. It was Emil Nelson, Marquette, vs. City of Gladstone, on Nelson's application for further workmen's compensation benefits. McGregor gave no decision at this time.

The 10 cases scheduled for this afternoon were redemption settlement cases, Ryan said. Where a workman has been injured and a cash settlement is involved, he explained, the parties cannot settle without the commission's approval.

Cases on this afternoon's schedule included:

Clarence Ryberg, Hermansville, vs. Elmer Johnson and Sons, Hermansville; Oscar Johnson, Marquette, vs. Max Fralick, Gwinn; Henry E. Bazinet, Burlington, Wis., vs. Kallio Bros., Chatham; Paul Almli, L'Anse, vs. Arnold and Marion Anderson, L'Anse.

Howard Boucha, Engadine, vs. Freeman Lumber Co., Engadine; Joan M. Michie, Sault Ste. Marie, vs. Crisp Laundry, Sault Ste. Marie; Charles A. Carlson, Crystal Falls, vs. William T. Holmes, Crystal Falls; Frans Wanhassa, Elo, vs. William T. Mattson, Pelkie; Joseph Talantino, Sault Ste. Marie, vs. Heatsch Pontiac Inc., Sault Ste. Marie; and Junior Krueger, Kenosha, Wis., vs. Grede Foundries Inc., Iron Mountain.

The Commission will meet Wednesday morning in the Courthouse to conclude hearings, Ryan said. The Commission comes to the Upper Peninsula three times a year.

Quality Materials for 54 Years

INDIAN SOUVENIRS—Black ash and elm growing on their home in the Hannahville Indian Reservation provide Mr. and Mrs. Alex Philomen with raw material for a growing souvenir trade. The Indian couple pounds black ash to get long wood reeds which, when dyed, are used both to bind ends of the miniature canoes and to make colorful Indian baskets. The tiny canoes range from one to three feet in size and are made from elm bark. Dyes for the wood reeds are made by the Philomenons from bark and roots. The two sell the Indian souvenirs in Escanaba, Marquette and other U. P. cities. (Daily Press Photo)

City Police Get New Cars

Two new cars were received this month by the Escanaba Police Department and a third is to be ordered shortly, G. S. Leonard, safety director said today.

One of the new cars, plain black with concealed police antenna, already is in service, and a second one, painted a distinctive black and white, will be put in use within a few days, Leonard said.

The plain car now is assigned for patrol work, but when others are received it will be used for investigating work and traffic.

Bids for another new police car are expected to be opened at the next council meeting, Leonard noted. The third new car will also be a "uniform" car, painted black and white.

The city police department here uses three cars and one motorcycle.

Assault Victim Accuses Youth

IRON MOUNTAIN—Lawrence Robare, 16-year-old Ishpeming youth whose parents reside in Iron Mountain, is being hunted by police of three states, charged with a brutal assault on Mrs. Rose Anna Bergstrom, 69-year-old widow, at her home, 512 West D street.

Mrs. Bergstrom weakened from shock and loss of blood, Sunday night accused Robare as the youth who attacked her with two empty quart milk bottles; took an undetermined amount of money from the house, and fled in Mrs. Bergstrom's car, which he took from the garage at the rear.

The aged woman, severely hurt, told her story in the Memorial hospital, where Dr. W. A. Schmutzler, attending physician, reported her condition to be favorable. She was deeply cut about the head, face and arms and suffered from shock and considerable loss of blood.

Dr. Schmutzler said a considerable amount of glass was removed from Mrs. Bergstrom's wounds. The pieces of the two quart milk bottles used in the attack were scattered about the house.

Broadcast Alarm

Meanwhile an alarm has been broadcast to Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota police to be on the lookout for the 16-year-old youth. He is believed to have fled in Mrs. Bergstrom's 1940 black Ford sedan which she said he stole from the garage at the rear of her home. The license number is NH-11-91. Robare is believed to be armed with a .32 revolver which police think he also took from the Bergstrom home before he fled.

The youth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Robare, Sr., 522 West F street. The family had resided in the upstairs apartment of the Bergstrom home in 1950. Since then the youth had been living in Ishpeming with his grandparents. He arrived in Iron Mountain Thursday to stay with his parents until his grandparents return from a trip.

Monday Prosecuting Attorney John V. Zanardi, Police Chief Frank Pipp and Sgt. Albert Schupp were preparing a warrant to be served when the youth is apprehended. Three specific charges are possible—felonious assault, breaking and entering a garage in the night-time and car theft. Although authorities are certain some money was stolen from the home, the amount has not been determined.

Clear Lake Camp Will Close After Aug. 16

The Clear Lake recreation camp in the Hiawatha National Forest south of Shingleton in the Upper Peninsula will close shortly after Aug. 16, unless additional reservations are received, it was stated by C. L. Harrison, National Forest supervisor in Escanaba. The camp has been booked up from June 22 through August 16, but cancellations will make the unusually early closing necessary unless some late reservations are received.

The Clear Lake camp was built for the Forest Service by the CCC in the mid 1930s for the purpose of providing facilities for outdoor recreation for such groups as Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, religious organizations, 4-H Clubs, educational groups and similar civic agencies and with the exception of the war years it has operated almost continually.

The group using the camp at the present time are from the St. Mary's Mission House, Society of the Divine Word of Techny, Illinois. There are about 65 young men in the Techny group which arrived at Clear Lake on June 22 for a five week stay. This group will be followed on July 27 by the Camp Fire Girls from Sault Ste. Marie who will stay until Aug. 16 at which time the camp will probably be closed.

In describing the camp Mr. Harrison stated that it is ideally situated and equipped for the purpose. Clear Lake is in a beautiful setting a short way east of state highway M-94, eight miles south of Shingleton. The camp is completely equipped with buildings and interior furnishings, electric light plant, water and sanitary sewer systems to care for the comfort and health of about 64 campers and the supplementary supervisory, service and counseling staff. Facilities for active recreation are provided by two play fields, horseshoe courts, bathing beaches, diving float, row boats and landing docks.

The camp buildings consist of a large dining room and kitchen unit and a combined administration and recreation building. In addition there are eight cabins arranged in two separate groups to accommodate eight persons in each. Separate lavatory buildings service each group and are equipped with showers, toilets, basins and hot water facilities. An infirmary is provided and equipped for medical examinations, care and isolation. It contains a three bed ward and quarters for the doctor or attendant.

Although the camp is provided on a non-profit basis a weekly charge is assessed to defray such costs as operating the light and water plants, fuel wood, maintenance and up-keep of the buildings and equipment, salary of the custodian, laundry costs for mattress covers and similar items. The using group furnishes all food supplies, recreation and sports equipment, bed and kitchen linen, soaps, cleaning products etc. Foods, milk and perishable supplies are obtainable from Manistowic, Shingleton and Munising.

The use of the camp is arranged by reservation, applications for which are submitted to either the Forest Supervisor, U. S. Forest Service at Escanaba or to the Forest Ranger at Munising. Forestry

Gerald Cleary Gave Countless Hours To Welfare Of Fellowmen

GREAT friendships spring from personal service to fellowmen which is one reason why Gerald J. Cleary, Escanaba civic leader who died suddenly Sunday morning, possessed such a large number of friends in Delta County and elsewhere. Few persons have given so much of their time and their efforts upon behalf of others as Gerald Cleary did over such a long period of time.

Mr. Cleary was best known over a wide area of Michigan as a political leader. He was undoubtedly the outstanding Democratic leader in the Upper Peninsula, having

Power With Words

By Dr. C. E. Funk

A correspondent has asked why "insects" are so called, and whether the "sect" part of the word has any connection with "sex."

To answer the second part of the question first, the answer is, "None." Sex is from the Latin word sexus, which means "sex," but the "sect" part of insect is from seco, meaning "cut." And, incidentally, our English word, sect, meaning "an organized religious group," has no connection with either, but is from sequor, to follow.

The true insect has three clearly distinguished body parts—head, thorax, and abdomen—so clearly distinguished that the bodies appear to "cut in," which gives the creature its name. These three divisions are called segments, another word from seco, cut, which means parts into which something may be cut. And, incidentally, the true insect has but three pairs of legs, each attached to the thorax.

Flies, bees, ants, wasps, crickets, grasshoppers, and beetles are perhaps the most common forms of true insects, but the class is said to the largest class of animal life. Popularly, though not in agreement with science, we also speak of various other small creatures as insects, regardless of the number of legs, especially if the creatures are more or less segmented. Spiders, with four pairs of legs, are notably so called, as are also ticks and mites. We even speak of the centipede as an insect.

Other words derived from the same root include, obviously, section. Its primary meaning is "that which is cut off" (as, a section of pie), but we have come to regard the term as pertaining especially to any distinct, separate part of anything, as surface (a section of road), or area (a section of land) or of distance, or time.

Another, even more obvious, term is secant (SEE-cant). Its literal meaning is "a cutting," but the term is more familiar to anyone who has studied geometry as that applied to a straight line that cuts another line, particularly a straight line that cuts a curve in two or more places.

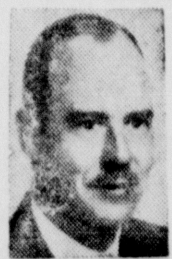

Bisect, to cut in two; dissect, to cut into pieces, hence, to examine closely; transect, to cut across, and intersect, to cut in between, hence, to meet and cross, require no further explanation. And vivisection, from Latin vivus, living; hence, to cut that which is living (for experimentation) is also a well-known term.

The Doctor Says... Hemophiliac Bleeding Rare Though Often Fatal Disorder

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

A correspondent who signs herself "Worried Grandmother" writes that her two grandsons are suffering with hemophilia, and she would like to learn more about it. This is indeed a most interesting subject, though fortunately a rather rare disorder.

Persons subject to this bleeding tendency are remarkably healthy and are different from others only in their liability to easy and excessive bleeding. A trifling injury which would not be of any consequence to a normal person will cause severe bleeding in a true hemophiliac. Under such circumstances the blood may trickle or ooze on and on and prove almost impossible to stop. Bleeding may be internal as well as external. Most attacks are caused by some injury, even though the injury is nothing more than a slight bump or bruise.

The tendency to abnormal bleeding is almost always noticed in early childhood and lasts till adult life, becoming gradually less severe and finally disappearing if the victim lives through the early difficulties. Nose bleeds are common; bleeding after the extraction of a tooth is also frequent. Extremely minor operations have sometimes been followed by fatal hemorrhage. Bleeding can develop in the joints or in the lining of the mouth, the stomach, the bowels or elsewhere.

Treatment of the bleeding in a victim of hemophilia is difficult. Transfusion of blood is often necessary and usually is the best thing. Other measures aimed at increasing the speed of blood clotting have been tried with more or less success. The most important thing is to try to prevent bleeding. Every effort should be made to avoid injury and, of course, active games such as football, in which injury is inevitable, are permanently prohibited. Operations should be avoided if possible and anyone who is known to have hemophilia should be sure to inform a physician at once of the known tendency before the medical examination begins.

ROYALTY HEMOPHILIAC

So far as is known, Queen Victoria of England was the first carrier of the hereditary factor or gene responsible for this famous royal bleeding disease. At least 10 of Victoria's male descendants have suffered from hemophilia and seven of her female descendants have been proved to be carriers of the gene. Where and how Queen Victoria acquired the fateful gene is however unknown.

In many cases of hemophilia the hereditary line is not easy to trace. The condition is limited to the male line although it is carried by women to their male offspring. Although in rare cases women bleed almost as easily as true hemophiliac men, the disease is usually considered to be a strictly male disease. Sometime, perhaps before too long, the fruits of current research may bring new practical information on hemophilia.

Prospects Improve For TV In Escanaba

A sharp upturn in the installation of television receivers in the Escanaba area is indicated as a result of improved reception from WTMJ-TV, Milwaukee, and with the prospects of even better reception this fall from Green Bay.

The Milwaukee Journal station last Saturday whooped its power to 100,000 watts and began transmitting from its new 1,050-foot tower. At the same time the station changed from Channel 3 to Channel 4. All three of these changes contributed to improved reception of the Milwaukee signal at Escanaba.

Just why Escanaba should get a reliable TV signal from Milwaukee is something that radio engineers cannot satisfactorily explain. Television signals are supposed to follow a straight line. If completely true, Escanaba could not possibly get a steady signal from Milwaukee because of the curvature of the earth. Yet Milwaukee has sent a fairly good signal into Escanaba 16,000 watts and form a transmitter tower only 375 feet high. The greatest obstacle to better reception from Milwaukee in the past has been interference from Kalamazoo, on the same channel.

The shift from Channel 3 to Channel 4 removes the interference with Kalamazoo and, of course, the increased power transmitted from a greater height also serves to improve the Milwaukee reception.

The best hope for good television in Escanaba, however, still rests with the television developments from Green Bay, which is only half the distance from Escanaba to Milwaukee. Green Bay has been sending in a pretty good signal here now, television viewers here report, but this will be greatly improved in September when Green Bay pushes its power to 100,000 watts and transmits from a much higher antenna.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Moscow aftermaths—Big Three foreign ministers meeting in Washington have done more talking about probable results of Beria's exit from the Kremlin than anything else . . . One certain result is: "A Big Four conference is out the window." Churchill was its chief backer and now Churchill may shortly retire as prime minister . . . Entirely aside from this, the Big Three foreign ministers don't want to give the stamp of approval to Malenkov by meeting with him at this time. Such a meeting would build him up in Russian eyes, make him more powerful in the Kremlin . . . Our hope is for more division in the Kremlin, not build-ups . . . Malenkov obviously wanted the meeting with Ike and Churchill in the worst way. His ambassador to Sweden urged the Swedish foreign office to promote the meeting this summer—in Stockholm . . . Ambassador Malik in London also called on Churchill to urge a meeting this summer . . . Other Moscow aftermaths: More trouble is expected in the Kremlin. However, no real collapse of Russia is likely . . . Some of Beria's friends are bound to flee the Iron Curtain; should give us a better chance to find out the real truth . . . Two big alternatives worry Allied diplomats: 1. Will the Russians be so busy disagreeing that tension with the West will ease up?; or 2. Will Malenkov be so jittery that he'll precipitate war? None of the experts knows the answer.

Russian Blood—Over Stalin's bier, Marshal Beria declared: "Our enemies think our loss will bring disorder in our ranks. They will be disappointed." . . . Beria obviously knew better because he was almost liquidated before Stalin died. He and Premier Malenkov have had a running feud for years. So have some of the other Kremlin leaders . . . Malenkov is half Russian, half Tartar. Beria is a Georgian. He comes from the same Soviet republic as Stalin. Nikolai Bulganin is the only pure Russian among the top leaders of the Kremlin . . . Malenkov came to the Kremlin in 1925 as Stalin's private secretary. He was recommended to Old Joe by Molotov and Kaganovich, now deputy premier and only Jewish member of the top command. However, Malenkov didn't hesitate to turn against his sponsors when they put their relatives on the Soviet payroll. He raised Cain because Molotov's wife, Polina, held a government job, and because Kaganovich's two brothers and a woman relative also fed at the Soviet trough. When Malenkov made a public confession accusing himself of evil in not preventing his wife from holding high office . . . On another occasion, Premier Malenkov almost came to blows with Marshal Zhukov (Eisenhower's friend in Berlin). The row took place in Stalin's villa at Sochi on the Black Sea. Stalin personally separated them . . . After this Zhukov was banished from Berlin and given an obscure command in Odessa. Zhukov's friendship with Eisenhower was played up in the Western press as the reason for this semi-exile, but it was probably Malenkov's jealousy.

Rival Armies—In Russia the secret police has long been almost as powerful as the Army. This was true under the Czar and is even more true under the Communists. The secret police, until last week headed by Beria, has its own tank divisions, modern weapons. The Red Army doesn't like the MVD, not merely because of competition but because the secret police has the power to arrest generals, officers, enlisted men, sometimes executes them without trial . . . In the hot and bitter rivalry between Beria and Malenkov, it was obvious that the man who controlled the Red Army would win . . . The Red Army has now backed Malenkov . . . At first, after Stalin died, it looked as if Beria might win out. For on March 21, two weeks after Stalin's death, Malenkov lost control of the Communist party . . . Shortly thereafter Beria fired top Communist officials in the key countries of the Baltic, the Ukraine, and the Caucasus. About a year before, he had been forced to purge some of his own friends in Georgia, men he had known in his youth and whom he had appointed to office. The purge was forced on him by Malenkov and Stalin . . . But after Stalin's death he got revenge and kicked Malenkov's friends out of their jobs in these key areas . . . But from Malenkov's mother, who was a Tartar, the Premier inherited ruthlessness and cunning. From his father, who was Russian, he inherited forbearance and calculation. It is now obvious that Malenkov waited, probably buttered up Marshal Bulganin, who controls the Red Army, Marshal Zhukov, with whom he once rowed, and using his long experience as a chess player, played them off against Beria, whom he hated.

Kremlin Knives Cupid:

Russian Wives Can't Join Their Husbands Outside Iron Curtain

EDITOR'S NOTE: Albert Parry, author of the following dispatch, is chairman of the Department of Russian Studies at Colgate University and writes frequently on Soviet affairs.

By ALBERT PARRY

Written for NEA Service

NEW YORK (NEA)—The Kremlin knives Cupid when he tries to unite hearts across the Iron Curtain.

We are reminded of this by the effort Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen is making to get exit visas for those Russian wives who want to join their American husbands abroad.

Many such wives, and in some cases also children, have been waiting for their passports for years. There are also wives and children of Britishers, Canadians, Frenchmen, and even one Chilean.

The governments of these and other countries, separately and together, in the United Nations, asked Moscow throughout the latter 1940s for this simple act of humanity. All in vain. But now, with peace talk wafting from the Kremlin, the world is once more asking Moscow for tangible proof of its "love-for-all" protestations.

The number of such hostages held by the Kremlin is estimated variously at anywhere from 350 to more than 1000.

For years 50 diplomats of assorted nations have begged for the release of their own Russian wives and children. At one time a British general was vainly waiting for the wife he married in Transcaucasia during the war.

What is the reason for the stubborn Soviet refusal? In the United Nations discussions of the problem, Soviet delegates have said that by denying those exit permits the Kremlin is protecting Russian women from exploitation and humiliation by foreigners.

This is a revival of an ancient, Muscovite claim. Early in the 16th Century, when the Danish government asked Moscow's permission for the Danish envoy Sidor to take his Russian wife to Copenhagen, the lofty answer was:

"It is not the custom in our domains to give free humans in bondage. The woman in question is of our domain, and it would be unseemly to give her in bondage to your man Sidor."

Today the Kremlin's official excuse is that Russians are the world's freest people while outside Russia most people are downtrodden slaves. By barring all these women's and children's exit the Kremlin is saving them from becoming slaves to foreigners.

From time to time a campaign is launched in "Pravda" and other Soviet newspapers to prove that Russian women abroad are slaves of their Western husbands.

Sad tales are published, purportedly by women fleeing back to Russia to tell of their oppression in the West. At a United Nations meeting the Soviet delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin with pathos cited one such complaint: "I had to cook meals for my husband in England. Hot dishes had to be ready on the table."

Countered Hector McNeil, the British delegate: "Is the General Assembly expected to weep because this woman is asked by her husband to provide a hot meal?"

Asked Mrs. Roosevelt: "Who does the housework in the Soviet Union? Is it always done by the men?"

In Birmingham one Englishman revealed that his complaining wife had joined him in England for three days only, "for propaganda purposes solely." They stayed in a hotel all three days. Said he:

"She had no real opportunity to form any opinion of what England was like."

It was Andrei Vishinsky who, with his blunt cynicism, let the cat out of the bag. On one careless occasion he admitted that his government feared Russian women's low opinion of their own country and high regard for the West if they were allowed to leave Russia and remain abroad.

"Women talk too much," said Vishinsky.

He then added one more true reason for the Kremlin's policy on the subject:

"The duty of Russian women is to produce Soviet children and not to increase the birth rate of the United States or England or Canada."

BESSIE LOVE looks over a portrait of herself as she appeared when she starred in the silent movies under the direction of D. W. Griffith.

By MILTON MARMOR

AP Newswriters Writer LONDON—The parts may be smaller and the audiences may have a different accent, but Bessie Love, the fragile beauty of American silent films, is still acting.

Now 53 and the mother of a 21-year-old dancer, Miss Love has appeared in British television, films and occasional stage plays in the West End and provincial theaters.

Miss Love, who used to play leading lady for Douglas Fairbanks Sr., and many other famous stars of the silent movies, still prefers film work but is intrigued by television.

"It's more frightening than the stage or movies," she said. "It's more like opening night every time."

On London Stage

Just a few seasons back, she played opposite Paul Muni in the London production of "Death of a Salesman." More recently, the veteran actress made a movie, "The Magic Box."

Does she still look young and baby-faced? The best answer to that is the fact that Miss Love is now rehearsing in a little theater production in which she plays the wife of a 17-year-old actor.

Interviewed in her London apartment, Miss Love recalled the past as she added color to the open fire in her living room. She remembered 1915 when, as young and unknown Juanita Horton, she left Midlands, Tex., and went to California to see D. W. Griffith.

Sees Griffith

Stopped by Griffith's secretary, she lied like a professional and said she had an appointment. It worked.

"Mr. Griffith was great and real and simple," Miss Love recalled. "He was so understanding when I told him I didn't know anything about the theater. My mother had told me that I'd have to try the films because I didn't know anything about acting."

Griffith saw something in that face. Soon he had changed her name. Bessie Love was cast as the young Jewish bride in the great movie, "Intolerance." She did many more silent movies and in the talkies enjoyed such successes as "Broadway Melody." Miss Love says she must have made hundreds of pictures; she can't remember them all. Once she worked on three pictures at once.

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Top treasury officials are not discounting the seriousness of the unexpected $9.4 billion U. S. deficit for the fiscal year ending last June 30. They insist, however, that it will not upset the apple cart of Eisenhower administration fiscal policies.

Secretary of Treasury George M. Humphrey says the big deficit points up the necessity for further cuts of the 1955 budget. The 1954 budget is being cut $4.5 billion. Secretary Humphrey is not yet ready to say how much more the 1955 budget should be cut.

He still believes the budget can be brought into balance by June, 1954. This does not mean bringing it into balance for the entire year. But he hopes to balance income and outgo by that time.

There is no thought of having to ask for a second extension of the excess profits tax beyond the Dec. 31 termination date just cleared by the House Ways and Means Committee for expected congressional approval.

Similarly, it is not now believed there is any need for further postponing the approximately 10 per cent cut in individual income taxes scheduled to go into effect Jan. 1.

These battles have been won once. There is no thought of trying to force them through Congress again, just to raise more revenue. Trying to force through a general tax reform bill—possibly in a special session this fall—is also not in the picture.

PONDER RAISING NATIONAL DEBT LIMIT

One important legislative question is still undecided by the Treasury. This is whether to ask for authority to raise the national debt limit above its present $275 billion ceiling, before the scheduled congressional adjournment July 31.

The U. S. debt as of June 30 was $272 billion. That leaves only a $3 billion margin for the next six months. As for what might happen if the debt goes over $275 billion after Congress adjourns, Deputy Secretary W. Randolph Burgess says, "I have enough nightmares without considering that."

Secretary Humphrey has warned previously that raising the debt limit might be necessary. But data are not yet assembled for a final determination on this point now.

One other factor on which Treasury experts do not yet have complete data is why the deficit for the past fiscal year rose to $9.4 billion. This was over $3 billion, or more than 50 per cent above the anticipated deficit of $6 billion.

Spending estimates were about right, at $74 billion. But tax receipts at $65 billion—though $3 billion above 1952 and higher than they ever have been—were not up to the $68 billion level anticipated. Treasury analysts may be a long time in finding why, since 1952 tax figures are still only two-thirds complete.

Corporation profits were apparently off. The steel strike and coal strike may have accounted for $700 million to $1 billion of the drop. But this figure was known in advance. It was a contributing factor but not the full answer to lower tax collections.

WITHHOLDING TAX WAS OVERCOLLECTED

An increase in efficiency enabled the Bureau of Internal Revenue to pay back this year some $850 million in overcollections of withholding taxes. These are not to be confused with tax refunds, which will be made later.

What may have happened—and this is still a Treasury surmise—is that many individual income taxpayers, anticipating tax cuts or a business recession, deliberately underestimated their income for 1953 payments. At any rate, June 15 tax receipts were not as far ahead of a year ago as they should have been.

If this underpayment is really what happened, the apparent $272 billion deficit that shows on the books today may be cut by several billion when revised estimated returns are filed next Jan. 15.

Secretary Humphrey insists that taxes have not yet reached the point of diminishing returns. Some critics of high taxes have insisted this would happen under present rates.

The administration is still committed to its sound money policy. This is not interpreted as a hard money policy, which means that money will be hard to get. The sound money policy means that the value of the dollar will not be further inflated.

Allies Attacked
By 20,000 Reds

SEOUL, Tuesday (AP) — Two Chinese Communist divisions — about 20,000 men — smashed against Allied lines on the Korean East Central Front, Monday night, the Eighth Army announced today.

Details were lacking. The Eighth Army said only that "upwards of two divisions were attacking between Sniper's Ridge and the Pukhan River."

This placed the heavy new action between Kumsong and the Central Front and Red-held Kumsong, a distance of about 13 miles.

Another four Communist battalions were attacking near the Pukhan River itself.

Public Health Service officials had some good news for Michigan families today. They forecast the state would not have nearly as many polio cases this year as it did in 1952.

A PHS survey showed that nationally, polio cases are running ahead of 1952—the worst polio year on record. There were indications, however, that the polio rate was slackening off.

Even as the government survey was released, the new polio fighting serum gamma globulin was used for what was believed to be the first time in Western Michigan.

The serum was used in treating Kayleen Thorburn, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Thorburn of Ionia, who became ill Saturday night. The girl was reported in fair condition at Blodgett Hospital in Grand Rapids.

The Public Health Service had these cheering notes:

1. For the past few weeks, the weekly totals of new cases have been either "very close to or below" the total for comparable weeks in 1952.

2. While a large number of States, including Michigan, have so far been reporting more polio than usual, many of them had been high incidences of polio just a year ago—and so it is less likely that they will have widespread epidemics in 1953.

STATEN ISLAND, N. Y. (AP) — The youth in court here said he had obeyed the judge and sent a letter to his father in Manhattan asking him to appear at the trial. Why wasn't the father here? He didn't get the letter. The youth had the only key to the family mail box.

The judge ordered him to send the key to his father—and not by mail, either.

LATE VIGIL—An American soldier, his movements shadowy against the light of an overhead searchlight, stands guard at a prisoner of war compound which houses some 1500 anti-Communist North Korean prisoners of war, somewhere in Korea. American soldiers man guardposts of camps which house prisoners who did not, or could not, escape during the recent mass South Korean-inspired escapes from camps guarded by ROK troops.

Chances Remote
For Red Collapse

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON (AP)—Only if the Red army joins in is it likely there can be an upheaval mighty enough to topple Moscow's monolithic government—and the present chances of this happening appear remote.

For these reasons American military men are making no revisions in their estimates of the capabilities of the Soviet armed forces, whatever political convulsions may appear to be going on in Russia.

The reliability of the four-million-man Red army to the Russian government, whoever heads that government, is well nigh perfect. No army in modern times, not even those of Nazi Germany, have been so well controlled. The Army is watched closely by the men who control the Communist party.

Officers Distrusted
For the armed forces, there is a dual system of surveillance:

1. The political commissars, who have been attached to the Army since the early 1920s.

2. Operatives of "Smersh," an organization of secret agents within the MVD, the major function of which is internal security and counterintelligence.

There have been reports that regular Army officers dislike and distrust the political commissars assigned to their units. But the same may not be true of the Russian G.I. He has little daily contact with any commissioned officer. He knows only the noncommissioned officers and the commissars. And he can appeal, as much as any Russian dares appeal an order, to the commissar.

Drunk Gets Beating
From Female Camel
In Elephant House

DETROIT (AP) — Police held James Patton, 35, for breaking and entering an elephant house.

Patton was found Sunday in the elephant house at Detroit's Belle Isle Zoo with two black eyes, various cuts and bruises and a head injury.

He complained to police that "a big tall man" had beaten him up. He admitted he had been drinking and that he saw an open door and walked in.

Checking up, police found the "big tall man" was behind bars already. It was Lucy, a highly excitable female camel, with a passion for privacy and a stiff right hook.

Patton had taken his "beating" in front of Sheba, the elephant, and a collection of monkeys who are quartered near Lucy.

Holdup $10,000

DETROIT (AP)—A slick young bandit who held up a supermarket manager for $10,000 without arousing the suspicions of six market employees and about 20 customers was sought by police.

The man was described as about 25 years old, well dressed and handsome.

Frank Cacciapalle, 39, manager of a Big Bear market in Highland Park, told police the man entered his office just before closing time Saturday evening, pulled a gun and demanded money.

The manager said the bandit kept a gun pointed at him but hidden from view, while he had the day's receipts brought to his office and turned them over to the intruder.

Shelin leaped to the ground in a race with his locomotive toward the boy. Running full tilt, he snatched the youngster from the engine's path, beating it by 50 feet. The locomotive was moving at about five miles an hour.

Tight Control Kept Over Jittery Suez Region By British

ISMAILIA, Egypt (P)—The British maintained tight traffic controls around this strategic Suez Canal zone town today but no incidents were reported.

Seeking traces of an airman they believe was kidnapped, British troops at checkpoints continued to search thoroughly all Egyptian civilians.

The Egyptian population still was excited over the new flareup in the British-Egyptian crisis following Egypt's rejection of a British demand that the missing soldier, Leading Aircraftman A. V. Rigden, be returned.

The British set up their rigid controls Monday morning, charging Rigden was last seen five days ago with an Egyptian officer and the Egyptians know more about his disappearance than they are admitting. Egyptian officials denied any knowledge of Rigden.

Egyptian authorities at Ismailia said they had their people well in hand and that the population was showing a "spirit of discipline."

Maj. Salah Salem, Egypt's outspoken minister for national guidance, challenged a House of Commons statement Monday by Britain's Minister of State Selwyn Lloyd that Egyptian authorities had a part in the soldier's disappearance.

"No Egyptian officer or Egyptian military or civilian had any connection whatever with the disappearance of the British airman," Salem said.

Sicilian Stabs Detroit Guard

DETROIT (P)—A 29-year-old knife-wielding Sicilian faces charges of assault with a deadly weapon today after stabbing a U.S. immigration inspector in an unsuccessful bid to enter this country.

The Sicilian, Nicolino La Barbera, was accused of stabbing Customs Inspector Otto Seglarek, 56, while making a wild dash past customs officers at the Detroit-Windsor tunnel Monday.

Seglarek was treated at a hospital for chest wounds and released.

Other guards came to Seglarek's aid and subdued La Barbera. They had to hog-tie the Sicilian before he could be taken to jail.

Seglarek said La Barbera tried to slip past an unattended customs gate after getting off a Windsor bus. He knifed Seglarek when the officer grabbed him.

La Barbera told authorities he brought the knife intending to use it if necessary to get into the United States.

Customs officials said La Barbera, who immigrated to Canada from Italy in 1951, did not have a U.S. visa.

Peace Foreseen For All Of Asia

WASHINGTON (P)—Sen. Wiley (R-Wis.) said today he is hopeful that post-truce political negotiations in Korea may open the way for peace in all of Asia.

Wiley, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in an interview he believes wide cracks are developing in the Kremlin which might lead to an independent move by the Chinese Communists to arrange a settlement for Asia.

Wiley and many of his colleagues are assuming that an agreement with South Korean President Syngman Rhee reached by Walter Robertson, assistant secretary of state, has paved the way for a Korean cease-fire.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) said Robertson will testify at a closed session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee Thursday to give details of the agreement with Rhee.

He is likely to be questioned closely about a proposed mutual security pact with Rhee's government.

Sanatic Chinese Smash Un Allied Defense In Korea

flanks of the Allies' bulge into Red lines, between Kumhwa and Look-out Mountain.

The penetrations at both ends of the front could endanger a big segment of the line.

Associated Press Correspondent Robert Gibson said the Chinese sent probing units as deep as four miles behind the main fighting. Some Reds were chopped down in crossfire as they tried to get through.

Launched In Rain

Officers at the front called the Red artillery fire "tremendous—unbelievable."

The fighting was confused, with communications hampered by severed wires.

It was a similar picture along the blazing front. South Koreans fought to their death at many points as the Chinese swarmed recklessly over barbed wire entanglements and charged through Allied artillery.

The attack came with startling suddenness and reports trickled back slowly to 8th Army headquarters because of severed communications.

The Chinese launched their mighty assault while rain and low clouds sharply cut down Allied air strikes.

"There are no reports of action ceasing in any sector," an 8th Army briefing officer said. He said the situation was "very fluid."

Beside punching through at the flanks, the Chinese ripped smaller holes all along the line.

The Red drive relied heavily on infiltrating troops who snaked across the rugged terrain and battled South Koreans behind the lines.

ROKS Hardest Hit

Although South Korean troops manned the entire defense line, several American artillery and mortar units and special groups attached to ROK divisions were in the thick of the fighting.

The immediate aim of the Red drive was not apparent, but the western flank—defended by the crack 1st and 6th divisions—took the brunt of the assault.

Most recent Communist drives have been leveled at ROK troops, possibly to punish South Korea for opposing a truce that would halt the fighting.

The Allies carved out the Kum-sung bulge—which lies above ruined power plants at the Hwachon Reservoir—in their great offensive of October 1951.

Eisenhower Tries Persuasion To Pass Foreign Aid Budget

WASHINGTON (P)—President Eisenhower today launched a campaign of personal persuasion to get from Congress the billions of dollars he wants for his foreign aid program.

He had Chairman Bridges (R-NH) of the Senate Appropriations Committee in for a chat over the breakfast table at the White House, and invited other members of that purse string controlling group to luncheon Wednesday.

Bridges, leaving the White House living quarters, avoided reporters, and there was no immediate word as to what plugging Eisenhower did for his program or the senator's reaction.

"I assume the President will be asking for the full amount of the authorization bill," Bridges said before the breakfast. "But I must say frankly the temper of this Congress is to cut the funds."

The House and Senate completed action on a $5,157,232,500 authorization bill late Monday and sent it to Eisenhower.

Action came on a compromise bill which had been worked out after the Senate and House passed varying measures. House approval of the final version was by 221-105 roll call; Senate approval was by voice vote.

The authorization was more than 300 millions less than the $5,474,000,000 requested by the President. But it still represented something of an administration victory in view of forecasts of much bigger cuts.

Polio Attacked At Decatur, Ill.

DECATUR, Ill. (P)—Macon County—an area with 98,500 residents—today was preparing for the inoculation of all its children under 10 years of age in a move against a possible polio epidemic.

Dr. C. Elliott Bell, president of the Macon County Medical Society, says the action followed notification from the Public Health Service in Washington that 133,000 cubic centimeters of Gamma Globulin (G.G.) had been allocated Monday to this threatened area.

The distribution of the G. G. will be made by the Illinois State Health Department.

Roland R. Cross, Illinois health director, said Macon County has had 14 polio cases since Jan. 1 and three deaths in the last three weeks, or "considerably more" than the number of cases during "the same period last year."

"There is not an epidemic in Macon County," Cross said, "but the cases would reach the epidemic percentage basis if the current rate of increase were projected to the end of the polio season."

Dr. Bell estimated, on the basis of census figures, that there are 18,753 children under 10 in Macon County—13,000 of them in Decatur.

Eisenhower and Nixon are the only two whose presence is continuous at all these sessions—and thus next to the President there is little doubt Nixon is the man who knows most about what is going on.

From reports, the President is listening to his advice.

Penny Murder Suspect Caught

MANDAN, N. D. (P)—Edward Emerson Crane, 32, sun-browned transient farm worker, was held on a murder charge today for the slaying of a small town police chief who was called to quell an argument over a penny sales tax.

With Crane were his wife and their five children, ranging in age from 12 months to 12 years.

Crane and his family were stopped by officers in River Flat bushes near Bison, in northwestern South Dakota, Monday and brought here. Mandan is the seat of Morton County, where Chief of Police Edward E. Mumby of New Salem was shot to death Saturday night.

Crane's wife, Vera, about 30, carried the baby as she and the other children were taken into the Bison jail Monday. The others followed.

The children were sunburned and their bodies were covered with huge welts from mosquito bites.

Mrs. Crane, who with her children was placed in a large, barred room adjoining her husband's cell, shook her red hair, produced a cigarette from her worn dress and shouted at Crane.

"We have to suffer for something you did."

Crane said the last job he had was on a farm at Yakima, Wash. He had been in Perkins County, South Dakota, since June looking for a job.

Crane said he and his family arrived in North Dakota last Friday.

It was at a cafe in New Salem where the argument took place over the sales tax, on some soda pop and other treats. Chief Mumby was called and put Crane in his car to take him to jail. A few minutes later Mumby was dead, with two bullet holes in his head.

Crane and his family fled in a car belonging to a New Salem farmer.

Missouri Dedicates First Monument In History To Negro

DIAMOND, Mo. (P)—For the first time in this state's history, a national monument will be dedicated to a Negro today.

State and national representatives will participate in ceremonies honoring Dr. George Washington Carver, the agricultural scientist who died in 1943.

Carver, who was born in slavery near this southwest Missouri town, developed more than 500 products from peanuts, sweet potatoes and pecans.

A 210-acre farm, on which Carver was born during the Civil War, is being set aside as a national shrine.

Unlucky Mike

CLEVELAND (P)—Woe is Mike Megyas. In the last five weeks: A tornado toppled his chimney. He went on duty as an auxiliary policeman to help other tornado victims and got a parking ticket. He took home a homeless robin, which now refuses to leave and won't eat anything but meat, potatoes and prunes. He has to take the robin along to work at a sewage disposal plant because the cat wants to eat it.

His pocket was picked.

Hungry East Berlin Residents Go To West Zone For Food

There was no evidence, however, of any immediate turnout resulting from Grotewohl's appeal and the government's admission of a food scarcity and a "serious shortage" of labor.

The private relief program in the Krugberg borough was only a local stopgap, and German and American authorities still studied suggested ways of getting the U.S.-offered food stocks into East Germany despite the brusque Soviet rejection.

Proposals included issuance of coupons which East Germans could redeem in food at special centers set up along the sector border, food distribution through church and welfare agencies, and increased mailing of gift food packages.

Can't Eat Promises

East Germans continued to flee to the West with 1,358 new refugees registered in Western Berlin Wednesday.

The West Berlin newspaper Der Abend said employees of some big East German plants halted work for several hours in protest against Communist rejection of American food aid. It said bitter disputes arose with Communist bosses in many Thuringian factories.

A spokesman for workers in the Eisenach motor plant was quoted as saying "we can't eat the promises of food from the Soviet Union."

June Brides Advised To Put New Hubby In His Place Right Now

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The honeymoon is over for many a June bride, and she is wondering:

"Okay, now how do I set about turning my big dummy into a responsible human being?"

If she turns to her mother or any other lady survivor of a marital war, she is likely to get this crisp advice:

"Put the bruiser in his place right now. If he ever gets the bit in his teeth, it'll take you forever to teach him who's really boss."

It is just such sage counsel as this that makes many a home another Gettysburg.

Paycheck Ends Dream

What should a bride do then to get off to the right start? Well, she might listen to some advice from the other side of the fence.

Young lady, if you are any credentialed to your sex at all, you will see the stardust fade before your bridegroom does. The trusting nature of man is such that he is always bewildered, amazed and hurt to discover the sordid truth that marriage must have a practical side.

This side is revealed with dismayed swiftness when the honeymoon is over. But how can you be sure when it is over?

Any smart bride knows it is over for her the day her big boy brings home his first paycheck. She sees at once it won't do, can't do.

The husband discovers the honeymoon is past only when he trots in with his second paycheck, and is told it will take all that and more to pay the bills the first paycheck didn't cover.

Big Meal Is Antidote

His world of romance sags around him like a collapsed parachute. With the belated discernment of a man, he looks ahead and sees himself behind the financial eight-ball forever.

He can't help feeling cheated. He broods.

Now, this is the moment you both will remember ever after. If you lose your temper and scream your first quarrel will be your last one—because it will never end.

Don't cry. Cry any time later in your life, but not now. This is when he wants to cry, and he will hate you if you beat him to it.

When his tears and sniffling cease, cook him a big meal.

Now that he is too gorged and sluggish to be unhappy, bring out that little black book called "The Family Budget." Paint a rosy picture for him of how easy it is, with the least bit of care, for two young people to have four times the fun for half the money.

Hit this theory hard, and stay away from the facts.

Now take your tired little man by the hand and lead him to sleep.

You both know the honeymoon is over. But you have taken the first long step from bridehood into wifehood, and he from careless lover boy to some sort of a husband. You have made the hurdle together, and you are at last really married.

Mother Finds Family She Left 30 Years Ago

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Mrs. Pearl Forbord, 52, cried Sunday — just as she did 30 years ago — but this time the tears were for joy.

In 1923 she left her two daughters and a son in an Oklahoma orphanage after her first husband left her. She said she wasn't able to support them.

Sunday she saw one daughter, Lillian, for the first time since the parting.

Lillian, now Mrs. John Tricarico, 32, of Norfolk, Va., came here with her two children for the reunion.

Mrs. Forbord previously had located the son, Glenn. Still missing is her other daughter, Thelma, who was 4 when the family broke up.

Mixup Over Melon

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A green watermelon got General Vernon Stanley, 54, of Winnsboro, Tex., arrested Sunday night.

Police Detective Jack Vaughn, miffed because Stanley refused to replace a green melon he had sold the officer, then asked the Texan to show his city permit for selling produce. Stanley didn't have one, Vaughn said, and the officer arrested him.

WASHINGTON—(CQ)—Local public welfare programs in the U. S. and possessions received $1,315,856,000 in federal grants-in-aid during fiscal 1952. This was a drop of $26,290,000 under the amount for fiscal 1951.

Grants to the states for the aged (over 65) and needy totaled $825,636,000 in fiscal 1951 compared to a federal outlay of $800,285,000 in fiscal 1952.

Federal aid payments for dependent children amounted to $316,477,000 in fiscal 1951, and $303,280,000 in fiscal 1952.

The federal government paid out $173,838,000 for unemployment compensation programs in fiscal 1951, and increased these grants-in-aid to $182,894,000 in fiscal 1952.

Federal grants for aid to the blind also went up, from the $26,195,000 spent in fiscal 1951 to $29,397,000 in fiscal 1952.

Here are the amounts Michigan received for each of these grants-in-aid programs in fiscal 1951 and 1952:

Good At Hitching

BRAINTREE, Mass. (AP)—Ronald Abell, 19, is a speedster when it comes to hitchhiking across country.

He arrived home Sunday exactly 84 hours and 10 minutes after leaving San Diego, Calif.

However, he thought the accomplishment "nothing at all." He said it took him only about the same time to go to San Diego in the same manner two weeks ago.

Sword Ruled Out

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—Police took a dim view of Baby Allen's method of making his point in a traffic argument Sunday.

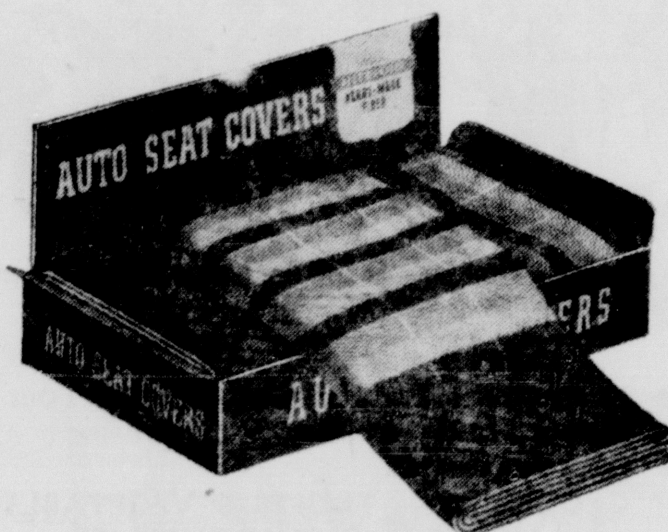

They said he waved a two-foot antique sword at Sammy Williams, another driver. Allen was arrested and booked on a charge of possessing a dangerous weapon.

Oconto Girl Is The Bride Of Ronald Shandonay

Of interest to residents of Escanaba is the wedding of Miss Mary Joan Aubry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Damas Aubry of 326 Cook Ave., Oconto, Wis., and Ronald Shandonay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shandonay, 302 N. 14th St., Escanaba, which took place June 27 at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Oconto.

The vows were spoken in a double ring ceremony before the Rev. Abner Laque who was celebrant of the 10 a. m., nuptial high mass.

The bride's gown, ballerina length, was styled with a lace bodice, elbow length sleeves and a full skirt of nylon tulle over taffeta. Her veil of bridal illusion was caught to a small white cap studded with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book on the cover of which was an orchid surrounded by dainty sweetheart roses with satin ribbon markers.

Bridal Attendants
Attending the bride, who was given in marriage by her father, were Miss Margaret Shandonay, a sister of the bridegroom, who was maid of honor, Miss Dorothy O'Neil, who was bridesmaid, and little Mary Ellen DePouw, who was the flower girl. The maid of honor wore a green net and lace, her gown similar to the bride's in design. A Juliet cap of sweetheart roses and nylon net gloves with open fingers completed her attire. The bridesmaid wore an identical ensemble of pale yellow and white sweetheart roses and Miss O'Neil's flowers were green and white. The flower girl's frock was of a harmonizing shade and she carried a miniature bouquet.

Robert Faubert served as Mr. Shandonay's best man and Carl Tabisz was groomsman. Seating the guests were Bernard and Ronald Aubry, cousins of the bride.

Baskets of seasonal cut flowers decorated the altar for the service. The choir sang "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" as the bride placed her flowers on the Blessed Virgin's altar following the service.

Mrs. Aubry chose for her daughter's wedding a shrimp colored nylon suit. Wellow roses and blue violets formed her corsage. Mrs. Shandonay attended the wedding in a two piece dressmaker suit of white linen with navy accessories. Her corsage was red roses and white carnations.

Dinner And Reception
A wedding dinner for 20 guests was served at St. Peter's Hall and a reception for 250 guests was held in the afternoon and evening.

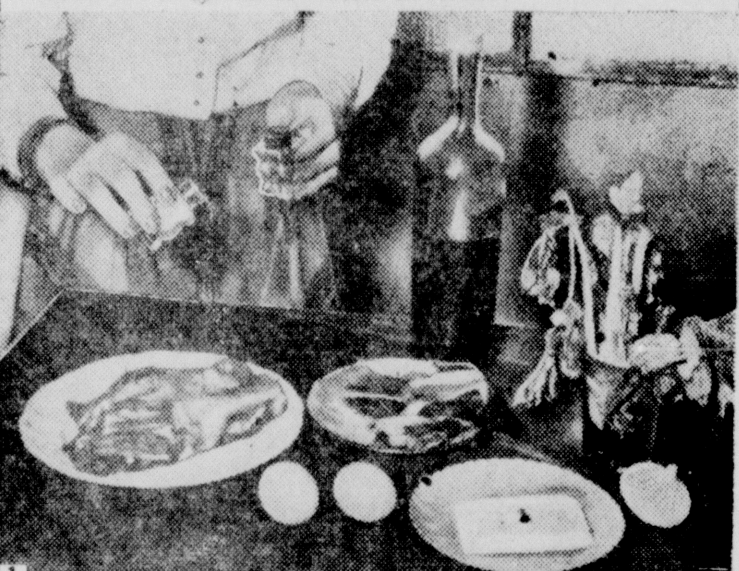

The newlyweds now are at home at 2555 S. 9th St., in Milwaukee after a honeymoon at the Wisconsin Dells. The bride who is employed as a stenographer in Milwaukee attended St. Peter's High School in Oconto. Mr. Shandonay attended St. Anne's School and Escanaba High School. He now is in the U. S. Navy, stationed on an S. P. at Great Lakes, Ill.

Among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dart and daughters, Mary and Susie, Mrs. Alev Giroux, Mary Miller, Joanne DeLaire and Willie Beauvais of Escanaba, Mrs. Martha Ward of Nahma and Mrs. Tom Shandonay of San Francisco, Ronald's grandmother, who had not seen her grandson in eight years.

When in Rome, Eat Veal Or Just Have It at Home

AP Newsfeatures

SPAGHETTI, you know about. That's the most popular dish in Rome. But here's how to prepare a tasty veal roll as the Romans do. They call it "Rolle di vitello."

THE MAKINGS — A thin slice of veal, two or three very thin slices of ham, two eggs, butter, onion, celery and olive oil are on the table. (You can use butter instead of oil if you prefer.)

FLATTEN your veal and lay ham slices on top (left). Make an omelet with the two eggs (right). You know how.

PUT the omelet on top of the ham with some chopped celery and roll everything up (left). Tie with string (right).

BROWN the sliced onion in olive oil or butter. Take the onion out (you don't use it.) Then put the veal roll in the pan as shown left and cook it in a slow oven for an hour. Refrigerate the roll, then slice as shown right. Serve.

Stenographer Trades Swats For Pinches

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A Capitol stenographer, letting off steam in an elevator, was quite unhappy over the fact the Legislature had raised some salaries of state employees but skipped her.

"Did you lobby the legislators?" she was asked.

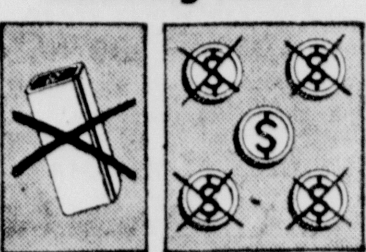

"No," she snapped, "but the next time I walk down the corridor and one of them pinches me I'm going to swat him in the eye."

Shooting Caused By Penny Tax

NEW SALEM, N. D. (AP)—Collection of a penny sales tax has been blamed for the death of New Salem's police chief, a shooting spree in the business district and a brief kidnapping.

Authorities in North and South Dakota are seeking a man named as Fred E. Warren in a first degree murder warrant sworn out by Morton County Sheriff Kermit A. Ellison for the death of Police Chief Edward Mumby.

Mumby was killed by a bullet in the head Saturday night after he had arrested Warren following a fusillade of shots which were fired in the downtown area. Authorities said the shooting followed the collection of a penny sales tax from a member of Warren's party.

Police gave this version: Warren, with a red-haired woman and five children, registered at a hotel and went to the cafe where the sales tax was collected. Enraged, Warren and the woman checked out of the hotel and Warren fired several shots. Mumby arrested him and was putting him in a car belonging to Walter Toherz, New Salem, when the chief was shot. After Mumby was killed, Toherz had to drive the party out of town, where Mumby's body was pushed from the machine. Toherz was forced at gunpoint to drive the party out of town, where Mumby's body was pushed from the machine. Toherz was ejected and Warren, the woman and the five children disappeared. Toherz said the man told him the name Warren was an alias.

Hot Air In GOP

CALGARY, Alta. (AP)—Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent implied Saturday that the U. S. Republican party blew its way into power by promising voters such "hot air" as tax cuts it couldn't deliver. The implication was contained in a political speech the Canadian Liberal party leader delivered before a party luncheon here.

Arsonist Starts Fire; 15 Perish

WILLOWS, Calif. (AP)—Police are holding a jobless 26-year-old man who they say has confessed starting a forest fire which took 15 lives Thursday—so he could get a job fighting it.

Sheriff Lyle G. Sale picked up Stanford P. Patton for questioning as he was working at his new job of cook at the fire control camp in Mendocino National Forest. Patton was held on an open charge.

The fire Thursday burned to death 14 missionary trainees of the New Tribes Mission and a professional forest ranger.

Patton told police he started the fire by throwing lighted matches into tinder-dry brush.

The blaze ate through 1,200 acres of brush and timber and trapped the 15 men, including two from Michigan. They were G. Daniel Short, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Short of Ypsilanti, and Robert James Mieden, 36, of Carleton, Monroe County.

They were studying to be missionaries among South African jungle tribes.

Gamma Globulin Polio Drive Made In New York State

By The Associated Press

Further attacks on infantile paralysis with gamma globulin as a national weapon were planned today after history's largest mass anti-polio inoculation went off like clockwork in two New York State counties during the weekend.

In polio-stricken Steuben and Chemung Counties, N. Y., 34,901 youngsters received gamma globulin injections Sunday and Saturday at emergency clinics. About 2,000 volunteers from the Red Cross, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and civil organizations aided medical personnel in administering the gamma globulin. There have been 59 victims, including five fatalities, in the current outbreak in the two-county area.

Epidemic Nipped
Gamma globulin, the scarce blood derivative credited with being a temporary preventive of crippling polio, will be used later this week in North Carolina where there have been 151 cases reported in two counties and four deaths. Fourteen thousand children are to receive experimental inoculations at Hickory, N. C. If supplies of gamma globulin can be obtained in time, the injections will be moved up from Thursday to Wednesday because of the urgency.

Mass tests were planned in Montgomery County, Ala., in an effort to find out more about the effects of the injections. Public health workers in Montgomery County—where officials said gamma globulin apparently nipped a threatened epidemic last week—said they wanted 2,000 child volunteers to give blood samples for the tests. The 2,000 would be made up of 1,000 children who got the injections and 1,000 who did not. The tests are planned to determine whether gamma globulin interferes with the body's normal ability to manufacture anti-bodies to resist polio.

Ahead of Last Year
U. S. Public Health Service officials in Washington said they still have some hope for a slackening off of the polio incidence in the nation despite the fact that total cases are running ahead of the same time last year, the worst polio year on record with 58,000 cases reported.

The trend in recent weeks, the officials said, have been "very

Blood Centers Keep Going On Sunday To Fill Military Need

WASHINGTON (AP)—A special weekend call for blood needed in Korea kept many Eastern blood centers of the Red Cross operating for the first time on a Sunday since the outbreak of the war.

A Red Cross spokesman said the need was met in full with 25 centers across the nation operating Sunday. In the past such weekend calls have been filled entirely on the West Coast.

The Red Cross declined to say the amount of blood collected or the reason for the special call.

NOW! Ford Master-Guide the last word in Power Steering!

"WHO NEEDS MUSCLES?"

Master-Guide applies hydraulic steering power automatically . . . and in varying degrees as required . . . right at the steering linkage, close to the wheels. At the same time the system serves as a hydraulic shock absorber to keep road jars and jolts from your hands. As a result all you do is . . . guide the car . . . Master-Guide supplies the muscles.

It's the newest in a long list of Ford advancements that make this Ford the outstanding car for '53!

No other car near Ford's price has ever offered you so much!

Ford was the first in its field to bring you V-8 power. Today, Ford alone of all the low-priced cars offers you the smooth, unsurpassed performance of a V-8 engine. And Ford's Six—the most modern in the industry—with Overdrive, won the Grand Sweepstakes in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run.

Ford first brought to the low-price field a completely automatic transmission that combines the smoothness of a torque converter and the gas-saving "go" of automatic gears. Fordomatic remains the most versatile automatic you can buy.

Ford's new "ride" brings you curve-hugging and bump-leveling qualities never before known in low-priced cars. Front end road shock alone has been reduced up to 80%.

Easier-acting suspended pedals, Center-Fill Fueling and Full-Circle Visibility are just a few of the many other important advancements first introduced by Ford.

And now Ford brings you the newest and finest in power steering . . . Master-Guide, a system exclusive in Ford's field! It's no wonder, then, that Ford is the "Worth More" car . . . worth more when you buy it . . . worth more when you sell it.

HELPS YOU OUT OF "TIGHT SPOTS!" The tougher the going the more Master-Guide works for you. For example, if you go off the pavement onto a soft shoulder or a rough, rutted road, Master-Guide provides the muscles to keep you on a steady course. At the same time, Master-Guide absorbs the shock that might otherwise be transmitted to the steering wheel. You'll find all handling is easier with Master-Guide and that parking requires only one-fourth the normal effort. Should Master-Guide ever lose its power, the standard steering mechanism will operate just as usual. Thus, Master-Guide provides new ease and stability, with a natural feel and full security, wherever you may drive. Optional on all V-8 models at extra cost.

Asks Motorists To Slow Down At Intersections

Chief of Police Torval Kallerson today warned all motorists to slow down at all intersections. "Cars parked at the curb make many blind corners where 25 miles per hour may be too fast," he said. "The driver approaching such intersections can't see another car coming until the very last minute. This gives him only a few feet in which to stop after he sees the other vehicle. He simply can't stop in such a short distance unless he has already slowed way down," he continued.

Failure of drivers to slow down at intersections is the chief reason why there are so many right angle crashes at corners. Many of these result in serious personal injuries and death. A passenger thrown from the car and striking his head against the pavement may not survive the mishap.

Chief Kallerson pointed out that today's cars are so smooth and quiet that the motorists doesn't realize he is going over 25 miles per hour unless he looks at his speedometer frequently. "Watch your speedometer and slow down for intersections is good advice for all motorists," the Chief concluded.

The warning to motorists to slow down at intersections is part of the statewide program of Check Your Speed sponsored by the Michigan State Safety Commission in which the city of Gladstone is cooperating.

No Place For Charm In Women's Prison

DENVER (AP)—A "charm school" for women prisoners at the Denver county jail got a thumbs down decision from Manager of Safety Edward O. Geer.

But Geer didn't even hear about it until 20 female inmates had received two hours of instruction in the arts of sitting, walking and standing.

The instructors came from a Denver modeling school. Geer said the jail was no place for models. Warden Barry B. Tillman said they weren't models, they were instructors.

Plane Crash Scene Visited By Youth

T. Sgt. Edward N. Berg in a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Berg, 515 Michigan avenue, tells of visiting the spot where 28 servicemen returning to Korea lost their lives in the crash of a big plane recently.

He writes: "That sure was a bad plane crash (C-124 Globemaster)—just a couple of miles from here. I was gone to Nagoya, Japan, with Col. Lebell the day it happened—but they were still working there next morning recovering bodies, etc. I visited the spot where it crashed—just a wet, sloppy rice field. There was parts of the plane for a half-mile around — it evidently just crashed right straight down and then exploded! They hauled the pieces that were left back to Feaglogor here—just one big pile of junk. The fire was so hot it just melted all metal in a few seconds including rings worn by passengers, watches, metal filling in teeth—it just burned the bodies completely and tore them apart—Enough of this!"

Sgt. Berg has been serving in Japan for ten months and last December was a member of a special mission sent to Korea.

He Finds Water And It's All For Free

COWLEY, Alta. (AP)—An 81-year old South Alberta man is one of the few persons who cling to the ancient practice of "water witching."

Ernest Cooknell of Cowley says he can locate an underground water supply by walking over the ground clutching a branch of a willow tree.

He says four of his family could make the wands wiggle over water, but four others, could not. He doesn't know how or why he possesses the talent. He says it may have something to do with the individual's body chemistry, and possibly is inherited.

Cooknell claims that his "witching" has never failed to find water since he came to Cowley in 1901. He has found water at depths ranging as much as 230 feet.

He has never taken money for a job, believing the charm might be broken if used professionally.

Dudes Flop Branding Colorado Cattle

DENVER (AP)—The electric and gas-heated branding irons now being used by some cattlemen are putting brands that can't be read on Colorado cattle, says Ed Paul, Colorado brand commissioner. It's the greenhorn cattlemen who are messing up the brands, Paul believes.

Paul has high hopes for improvement soon because the men attracted to the business by high profits a few years back are now getting out as the price of livestock drops.

"They get their irons too hot or too cold," he says. "If the irons are cold, they won't make permanent scars. If they're too hot, they burn across the brands and smear them up," he explained.

They're both alumni of Georgetown University's School of Law here. Hall graduated in 1920, Mitchell in 1928.

Picture Of Former Local Girl And Baby Appears In Paper

A two-column picture of Mrs. Marion Koltyn, the former Audrey Johnson, Manistique, and her infant daughter appeared in Sunday's issue of the Minneapolis Tribune.

The picture, taken at the Koltyn home in Racine, Wis., showed the child walking by clinging to her mother's fingers. The caption stated that the baby daughter, Kelli Faye, walked at the age of eight days. The infant was 19 days old when the photo was snapped.

The child, however, refused to walk wearing diapers so a Racine artist carefully painted diapers on the little girl's picture to preserve the proprieties.

Mrs. Koltyn is a daughter of C. Vern Johnson, operator of Johnson Cleaners in Manistique.

Drivers Ticketed Following Crash Late On Sunday

Drivers of two cars involved in an accident at 11:55 Sunday night on US-2 between Manistique and Thompson were ticketed by Michigan state police.

Loren LaBrasseur, Manistique, was tagged for failure to signal a left turn, and Norman Evans, of Birmingham, Mich., was ticketed for failure to have his car under control.

According to police, Evans' car crashed into the rear of the LaBrasseur machine as the latter started to make a left turn into a lake shore drive-off. The two cars were headed west.

Both cars incurred damage.

U.P. Junior Golfers Tie For Fourth In State Meet

MIDLAND (Special to the Escanaba Daily Press)—Led by Escanaba's Bill LeMire Jr., first Upper Peninsula junior golf champion, who posted two consecutive 77's for 154, the four-man U. P. team tied for fourth in the state junior golf tournament here yesterday.

Don Murwin, of Menominee, co-runnerup to LeMire in Escanaba last Thursday, added an 81 to his morning 79 for 160, and Joe Pesavento, Iron Mountain, turned in 83-87-170. Jack Smith, Escanaba Highland, staged a fine comeback to tack a 79 onto his morning 86 for a 165 and a team tally of 649.

That 649 tied the U. P. quartet with Lansing for fourth — a commendable performance in their first venture in state junior golf play.

Top team was Detroit with 633. Jackson was next with 639, Howell third with 644 and Escanaba and Lansing tied for fourth. Other team tallies were Midland 650, Grand Rapids 652, Three Rivers 660, Owosso 667 and Adrian 671.

Merchants Trip White Birch 9-6

The Merchants beat White Birch 9-6 last night in a heavy-hitting American League softball game at Memorial Field.

The Merchants scored five in the first and four in the third off Franny Lancour before Leo Lancour shut the gate in the third inning. White Birch threatened with two in the sixth and two in the seventh.

Starter Ken Dufresne was relieved by Louie Kositzke in the seventh inning for the winners.

Clint Marenger of White Birch tied off for one of the longest homers of the year in the fifth. The ball sailed high over the snow fence in center field and hit the deep wire fence surrounding the park.

Tom Dufour and Mickey Kuchenberg both collected a pair of doubles for the Merchants. Ed Gauthier and Kippy Derouin each had a single and a double.

In the National League Roger Beauchamp pitched the Daily Press to a 14-2 victory over Neisner's with Dick Anderson going for the losers.

Ray Wahowiak turned in one of the season's best mound performances in fashioning a one-hitter as the Gladstone Bungalows trimmed Hyde 12-0.

Wahowiak surrendered his lone hit to Tom Brayak, Hyde hurler, in the fifth inning. Bunagolw batters got to Brayak for 13 safeties.

Kell, Goodman Race For Title

NEW YORK — Teammates George Kell and Billy Goodman of the Boston Red Sox seem intent upon staging their own merry chase for the American League batting championship. The veteran infielders, both former hitting titlists, currently are tied for the lead with .329 apiece.

For the past few weeks Kell and Goodman have alternated as the batting leader.

Orestes (Minnie) Mino of the Chicago White Sox created the biggest stir in the junior circuit hitting race as he jumped from eighth to third at .320.

Red Schoendienst of the St. Louis Cardinals continues to occupy the top spot in the National League hit parade with a .341 average, but his position appears none too secure. Chicago's Frankie Baumholtz, the runnerup, has .329.

Al Rosen of the Cleveland Indians tops the American League in both home runs with 22 and runs batted in with 72. Eddie Mathews of the Milwaukee Braves dominates the senior loop in these departments with 27 homers and 75 RBI's.

Ed Lopat of the Yanks heads the American League in pitching effectiveness with a 8-1 won-lost record for a .900 percentage. Lew Dardette of Milwaukee ranks as the National League hurling stand-out with a perfect 7-0 slate.

Golfers from nearly 30 Michigan cities competed. The U. P. meet, in which seven cities were represented, was sponsored by the Escanaba Daily Press and the Escanaba Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the state tourney was sponsored by the Michigan Junior Chamber.

Although the U. P. did well in team play, not a member qualified among the five low scorers for the national tourney in Ann Arbor Aug. 17-22, inclusive.

LeMire missed the No. 5 spot by only four strokes, however, as Hillsdale's Fred Micklow

Miss Wall Shares Top Billing With Devaney

GRAND RAPIDS — Pat Devaney, daughter of a Grosse Ile golf pro, shared the spotlight with defending champion Mary Agnes Wall of Menominee as match play began today in the Women's State Amateur Championship.

Miss Devaney, who stroked a brilliant medalist 79 Monday to equal a 20-year-old record at the Kent Country Club, took on Ypsilanti's Mrs. C. U. Wilson in a first round battle of former champions.

Pat won the crown in 1950 and Mrs. Wilson in 1951.

Home Town Champ Miss Wall, who as defending titlist did not need to qualify, drew as her first round opponent 17-year-old Alyce Howard of Battle Creek, women's medal and match play champ in her home city.

Blue-eyed, blond Alyce had an 88, the same as Mrs. Wilson's score, in the qualifying round.

Two other former champs qualified. Mrs. Donald Weiss of Flint, who won the crown four times, had an 88 and began match play against Mrs. W. C. Cartier of Grand Rapids, who scored 85.

Another Teen-Ager Margaret Russell of Detroit, the other former winner, won the 16th qualifying position after tying with Clara Jane Mosack of Detroit at

Belgium And Denmark In Davis Cup Finals

LONDON — Belgium and Denmark will meet for the Europe Zone Davis Cup championships and the right to meet India, the Eastern Zone representative.

The Belgium-Denmark tie must be completed by a week from today. The winner of the India-European Zone championship then will meet the winner of the American Zone eliminations.

Belgium scored the biggest upset so far by defeating Italy in Brussels Monday, 3-2, while Denmark defeated France, 4-1, at Paris.

topped the field with 76-71-147. Jackson's Bob Zimmerman and Detroit's John Shubeck tied with 148's and Steve Uzelak, Detroit, and Bill Morgan, Pontiac, tied with 150's.

These five low scorers will represent Michigan in the national junior golf tournament in Ann Arbor next month.

In addition to the four-man team, other Upper Peninsula entries scored as follows: David Hirn, Escanaba, 85-81-166; Don Hovevar, Sault Ste. Marie, 81-87-178, and Grant Burnett, also of the Soo, 88-79-167.

89. Miss Mosack conceded after three-putting the first extra hole. Miss Russell meets Mrs. John Speer of Lansing, who scored an 85.

Another teen-ager besides Miss Howard, 19-year-old Judy Reynolds of Kalamazoo, was expected to draw plenty of attention. Judy qualified with an 87 and was paired against Irene Bretzlaff of Detroit.

Sharing runner-up honors in the medal play were Mrs. Harold Marquardt of Mt. Clemens and Janet Applehof of Port Huron. Both had 82 cards.

Although no official action was taken on the sad St. Louis situation in the American League, it was regarded as almost a certainty that owner Bill Veeck again will request permission from the league to shift the Browns to Baltimore next fall. There is no possibility of any move before the end of the 1953 season.

Veeck Gets Sympathy

Several club owners expressed sympathy with Veeck's plight and intimated they would go along with him next time. However, Del Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees, hinted he may not be in favor of Baltimore as a site.

"I believe the time will come when we will have to move such clubs as St. Louis and Philadelphia to Los Angeles and San Francisco," he said.

The majors beat down an attempt to cut the player limit from 25 to 23 when Commissioner Ford Frick voted with the American League against a National League economy proposal.

No action was taken on the problem of Caribbean winter baseball, a subject that has disturbed the player representatives. United States major leaguers, banned from playing winter ball while Latin Americans are permitted to play in their own country in off season, want the same rule for all.

Discuss Winter Ball

"Something will be worked out before the winter season," said Commissioner Frick.

The players discussed the winter ball problem while meeting with their leagues Monday. They also asked a higher minimum wage, better control of night ball and their own agent to represent them in dealings with management.

The owners promised to take up their grievances at the winter meetings. The idea of a special agent, however, appeared to be doomed.

Allie Reynolds of the New York Yankees, representing American League players, was invited to attend all future league meetings. No similar invitation was extended to Ralph Kiner of Chicago, National League delegate.

Little Bigger League Tag Days This Week

Players taking part in the solicitation will be in full uniform as they make their calls throughout the city this week. Contributors will be given a tag which will entitle them to attend the All Star game to be played at Memorial Field diamond Monday night.

The list of the Little Bigger League All Stars who will make the tournament trip will be announced this week.

Chances Are 5 To 1 Against White Sox, Braves To Win Flag

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

Recent baseball history shows the chances are only 1 in 5 that either the Chicago White Sox or the Milwaukee Braves will win a pennant this season.

The Sox and the Braves are the second-place teams as the flag chases await the outcome of today's All-Star game. The Braves trail Brooklyn by 1½ games. Chicago is five behind the New York Yankees.

In 1951 the New York Giants moved from second to the pennant after the All-Star break. The Yankees did it in the American League in 1950. In each of the other last five seasons the National League winner already was in first place when the All-Star Game came along.

Came From Third

During that same spell the Yankees are the only team that climbed from lower than second. In 1951 they were third behind Chicago and Boston when the All-Star Game was played. In 1948, 1949 and 1952 the American League team in first place when the vacation came finished first.

This year the All-Star Game is being played later in the season than ever before. It is a full week later than a year ago.

Briefly, here's how the last five seasons have gone after the All-Star break:

1948 American League — Cleveland, the pennant winner, was in first place, slipped to third at the end of July and then climbed back.

National League — The Braves were in first and stayed there.

1949 American League — The Yankees were first all the way.

National League — Brooklyn slipped to second at the end of July but wound up first.

1950 American League — Detroit led and it stayed that way until September when the Yankees took over.

National League — Philadelphia faltered briefly right after the All-Star game, then resumed the lead.

1951 American League — The Yankees were in third, their low point of the year, then pulled ahead. The White Sox fell from first to fourth before the end of July.

National League — Brooklyn stayed in front.

1952 American League — The White Sox were a close second to the Yankees but hit the skids and fell to sixth before July was over.

National League — The only change from the All-Star break to the end of the season came when the Phillies, who were fifth, replaced the Cubs at the bottom of the first division. Brooklyn was ahead.

Complete schedule this week: Tuesday — St. Joe at Kiwanis Wednesday — Kiwanis at Lions Thursday — St. Joe at Rotary Saturday — League practice game.

Alice Altse joined the ranks of the fortunate golfers who have scored aces when, touring the Gladstone course with her husband Augie, she pitched for a hole-in-one on the 100-yard No. 4. The Gladstone Club women's champion had a gallery composed of Walter VanDeWeghe, T. J. LaLonde, Jim Sundelius and Laurie Grove standing just off the green when she arched her shot across the Days River for the ace Sunday afternoon.

American Legion Junior baseball players turned in a lot of ball during the 11th district tournament at Escanaba and Gladstone over the past weekend. The youngsters did a good job of it on the hot diamonds in the rugged tournament schedule and a lot of fine play was turned in. One of the outstanding performances was the iron man stint by Bill Maycunich of the Escanaba All Stars who served behind the plate for 65 straight innings without a letup. Maycunich produced 14 hits in 30 trips to the plate for the All Stars.

Incidentally, the Michigan state championship tournament for American Legion teams will be held in Bay City on July 24-25-26. Five division champions will compete. The national championship tournament will be held at Miami, Fla., Sept. 1-5. And the latest issue of the Sporting News reports that 139 graduates of 1952 American Legion teams now are signed to professional baseball contracts.

Majors Put Block On Future Hasty Shifts

By JACK HAND

CINCINNATI — The major leagues have set up a road block against any future hasty franchise moves by restricting territorial drafting to the two-month period from Oct. 1 to Dec. 1.

By joint action at Monday's meetings, the two majors wrote into the rule book, a resolution adopted last spring at Belleair, Fla., by the executive council.

Although no official action was taken on the sad St. Louis situation in the American League, it was regarded as almost a certainty that owner Bill Veeck again will request permission from the league to shift the Browns to Baltimore next fall. There is no possibility of any move before the end of the 1953 season.

Delta Hardware Moves Back Into Contention

Delta Hardware moved back into contention in the Escanaba Little Bigger League pennant race by edging the Elks 7-6 in eight innings last night.

The win gives Delta a 7-5 season record with a makeup game to be played with Kiwanis, AFL, leading the loop standings, meets Kiwanis in an important clash tonight. Hardware won in the eighth when Bob Hughes walked, stole second and third, and came home when Lester Millette hit into a fielder's choice and was thrown out at first.

Gary Wellman, who came in to relieve Charles McCarthy in the fourth with the score tied 6-6, pitched hitless ball for Delta Hardware. McCarthy had given up only two hits but wildness kept him in trouble.

Bud Besonen went the distance for the Elks and allowed only three hits.

The Insurance Association defeated Paper Mill last night by 13-7, with Bob Anderson whiffing 10 while going the route for the winners. He gave up eight hits. Ronald Johnson started and was relieved by Bill Lindstrom in the third for Paper Co.

Plate stars for the Insurance were John Vadnais, Clyde Robinson and Charles Lindquist. Bob Podman and Ronald Johnson led Paper Co. at bat.

The Insurance Association team will hold a practice session Wednesday evening at 6 at Royce Park diamond, managers announced today.

20th Annual All-Star Game Gets Under Way

By JOE REICHLER

CINCINNATI — Baseball's greatest performers—the National and American Leagues' finest 50—were on display here today as the rival circuits clashed in the 20th annual All-Star game at Crosley Field.

Besides the capacity crowd of some 30,000 on hand to see the All-Stars in the flesh, millions of television and radio fans were prepared to watch and hear the Nationals seek their fourth straight which would match the longest streak compiled by the American League in 1946-49.

Despite victories in 12 of the 19 previous July encounters as well as 32 of 49 World Series engagements, the American League was an 8-5 underdog against the harder hitting Nationals. Never before was the junior circuit such a decided underdog as it sought to win its first mid-summer classic since 1949.

Stengel Dubious

Even Manager Casey Stengel, who has hung World Series defeats upon the National League in the last four years, sized up his dubious chances with the comment, "They say the other guy has all the players."

"The other guy," of course, is Charlie Dressen, who was making his maiden bow as pilot of the Nationals. Dressen, who couldn't conquer Casey and his Yankees last October, felt he could do it today because, "I have the best pitcher and the best hitters in baseball on my side."

By the "best pitcher," he meant Robin Roberts, Philadelphia Phil's standout righthander whose 14 victories outranks those won by any other pitcher. As expected, Dressen nominated Roberts to hurl the first three innings. He was to be opposed by Billy Pierce, Chicago's fine little southpaw, whose record of 10-5 was slightly inferior to Roberts' 14-6.

Here's Pete Power

The tipoff on the Nationals' awe-some power was that Enos Slaughter, the Cardinals' great outfielder playing his 10th All-Star game, was placed in eighth spot in the batting order. Eddie Mathews, Milwaukee's fence-buster and major league leader with 27 home runs, batted sixth. Ted Kluszewski, Cincinnati's slugging first baseman, playing in his first All-Star game, was honored with cleanup spot.

Although outshone by the National League sluggers, the American had a fairly imposing lineup of its own. With fellows like Al Rosen, Yogi Berra, Hank Bauer, Mickey Mantle and Gus Zernial in the starting array it becomes an "anything-can-happen" game.

It is mandatory that the lineups of both clubs remain unchanged through the first three innings. After that the managers can—and undoubtedly will—make plenty of changes.

SKYSCRAPING LOAD — That derrick's about to pluck the Terminal Tower right out of the Public Square in Cleveland, Ohio, and plant it somewhere else, if your eyes would be fooled by this structure. However, the 708-foot skyscraper was actually about one mile away from the derrick which was working on a Cleveland waterfront dock.

When Disaster Hits Your Property Check On These Facts For Tax Deduction

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Floods and tornadoes have caused millions of dollars of damage this year. You won't be thinking of taxes if your property is suddenly struck by one of the swiftly moving tornadoes or damaged by a rampaging flood. But afterwards, when the repairing and rebuilding start, it may help to know whether your loss can be used to reduce your income taxes.

Damage caused by sudden occurrence such as fire, floods or storms can be deducted by the owner regardless of whether the property is considered business property or is for the personal use of the owner, but the rules for figuring the loss differ.

Here's what happens if the damaged or destroyed property is your own home, car or property for your own personal use:

First, let's assume that you keep the property and either have it repaired or left in its damaged state. You can deduct the loss (how to figure the loss is explained below) on your tax return for the year in which the damage occurred provided you do not use the tax table or take the standard deduction. In other words, you might itemize your deductions on Long Form 1040.

If, however, your property is destroyed or so damaged that you get rid of it during the year, you will ordinarily have to itemize your deductions if you want to take the loss. But if you should have gains from the sale of other property which are larger than your loss, then you can deduct the loss from your gains and still use the standard deduction or tax table on the return.

You won't be able to tell until the end of the year just how best to handle a casualty loss on your return. Now is the time, though, to jot down information you will need if you decide to deduct the loss when you fill out your return next year.

You will need:

1. A brief description and the date of the sudden occurrence causing the damage.
2. A description of the damaged property and its location, together with a description of the damage caused by the sudden occurrence.
3. The cost of the property.
4. The fair market value of the property just before and after the casualty.
5. Any insurance or other compensation, including Red Cross aid, recovered.

Ordinarily, your deductible loss will be the difference between the value of your property just before and after the casualty, less any insurance or other compensation. In a few cases, however, the difference between the value of your property just

Duty On Cars Runs High In New Delhi

NEW DELHI (AP)—India imposes a standard duty of 75 per cent on the cost price of imported small automobiles with less than eight horsepower in assembled form, Commerce Minister T. T. Krishna-Machari says.

The figure compares with duties running as high as 94 per cent on certain parts of the same cars in knocked-down condition. A commerce ministry spokesman explained that "the duty on parts varies, depending on whether the particular component is or is not produced in the country to a sufficient extent."
